

April 27, 2020

To All Students:

Trustee for Education / Vice President
Tokyo University of Agriculture and Technology (TUAT)

Regarding Cash Handout of JPY 100,000-Per-Person to All Residents of Japan based on Japanese Government's "Emergency Economic Measures for Response to COVID-19"

(This cash handout is not related to the TUAT scholarships and does not affect the selection process, etc. of the scholarships provided by the University.)

As part of economic response to coronavirus outbreak, "Emergency Economic Measures for Response to COVID-19" (adopted by the Cabinet on April 20, 2020), this fixed-amount cash handout program is planned to be implemented in order to support households financially with quick and simple procedures whilst containing the spread of the infection. Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan has requested the universities to inform their students about this program. If you are eligible, be sure to apply and receive the cash handout.
